

Frequently Asked Parent Questions NATIONALS

Q. What level does my child need to be competing in order to compete at Nationals?

A. Level 5.

Q. How does an athlete qualify for JO Nationals?

A. There are a number of requirements an athlete must fulfill in order to compete each year at nationals.

1. An athlete must compete in at least two USAG sanctioned meets to qualify to state and regionals.
2. An athlete can qualify to nationals on one to four events by hitting a qualifying score at either the state or the regional meet.
3. An athlete must attend both state and regionals in order to compete at nationals.

Q. What are the qualifying scores?

A. The qualifying scores vary by level and discipline. A list of qualifying scores can be found on the "For Parents" page of our website.

Q. Will my child hit qualifying scores for Nationals?

A. My best advice is to assume your child will qualify. Mark the dates for Nationals on your calendar now and book a hotel room as soon as possible while keeping an eye on travel plans.

Q. Should my child go to Nationals?

A. Absolutely! It is a GREAT experience win, lose, or draw but Air Sports also has a great history of success at the national level.
